

School group moderation offer

How confident are you in the accuracy and consistency of writing assessment judgments across your schools? Is it time to reinvigorate your moderation processes?

Imagine you had access to a tool and training that:

- Improves staff knowledge and confidence in making robust writing assessment judgements.
- Increases the enjoyment and usefulness of your moderation sessions.
- Saves everyone time and effort in preparing and facilitating moderation sessions.
- Supports leaders by providing valuable insights e.g. staff CPD needs, curriculum celebration points and areas for development.
- Allows you to easily create and share your own school group writing exemplars.

Price from £250 + VAT per school

Additional services offered:

- bespoke training
- consultancy sessions
- external validation sessions
- facilitation of cross-school moderation sessions

For academies, free schools and Independent Schools there is the option of partnering with us as your statutory assessment provider.

Book a call

About Pobble

Pobble helps teachers inspire their class to write and improve the accuracy and confidence of their writing assessment judgments. We do this by providing daily writing resources that engage and motivate every child, and an online moderation tool that enhances schools' moderation processes.

Pobble online moderation offers your group of schools a robust, valuable and positive way to improve your moderation discussions. Giving your whole team a clear understanding of pupils' standards and the confidence to discuss doubts and easily qualify judgements.

Get in touch:

 Pobble.com/moderation

 hello@pobble.com