

Writing Bingo!

Can you complete a full house?

Pobble

Use this bingo card when editing your creative writing.
Tick off as many boxes as you can and aim to complete every one this term. How many can you tick?

Used capital letters in all the right places	Finished my writing with a clear closing sentence		Included at least one WOW word to make my writing more engaging
	Used paragraphs to organise my ideas clearly	Used a dictionary to check tricky or unfamiliar spellings	Improved at least one sentence to make it clearer or more precise	 Used punctuation marks correctly throughout my writing
Chose an interesting verb to bring my writing to life		Used dialogue if appropriate to add interest or show character	Described a character using detail and imagination	Started with a clear and purposeful opening sentence
	Added an extra detail to strengthen my ideas or description	Read my full piece to check it makes sense and flows well		Read my writing back to check it suits the audience and purpose
Used some conjunctions to link ideas effectively		Described the setting to help the reader imagine it	Changed a boring word for a more powerful one	Used a simile to create a strong image or comparison

